OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 22 December 1970

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Met briefly with John Martiny, Chief Counsel, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, who told me that he expects the conference report on the pay bill to clear through the Senate before recess. He anticipates no difficulty on the floor of the House.

[REDACTED]

3. [REDACTED] Met with Miss Mary Swann, Administrative Assistant to Representative F. Edward Hebert (D., La.), and gave her a copy of the Garrison book Heritage of Stone. Miss Swann told me that unless something unusual happened on the floor of the House Mr. Hebert may not return to the city until sometime after the first of the year.

4. [REDACTED] In response to her request of yesterday returned to Miss Judy Waggoner, on the staff of Senator John G. Tower (R., Texas), constituent correspondence relating to employment in the Secret Service.

5. [REDACTED] Delivered to J. G. Sourwine's office for Senator James O. Eastland (D., Miss.) English-language text of the Red Star attack on Senator Eastland of 16 December, and an article by B. Karpovich entitled "The Neanderthal Man from Capitol Hill" together with Red Star items of 14 October and 15 November referring to Senator Percy. I left a note for Mr. Sourwine outlining the fact that Red Star's gratuitous personal attack on Senator Eastland in a full-scale article is unusual.
